COVID-19 Update July 28, 2020

Governor Cooper's Announcement

Today, Governor Cooper signed an Executive Order issuing a state-wide alcohol curfew of drink sales at restaurants, wineries, breweries, and distilleries by 11 pm. The curfew does not apply to grocery stores, convenience stores and other retail for off premise consumption. This order will go into effect Friday, July 31 and will expire August 31. For more information, read the official Executive Order.

The extension of Phase 2 is set to expire next week on Friday, August 7th. Governor Cooper is expected to make an announcement before the expiration date stating if North Carolina will be extending Phase 2 or advance into Phase 3.
